

A close-up photograph of a person's hand holding a large quantity of bright red, round berries, likely hawthorn berries. The hand is positioned on the left side of the frame, with the palm facing upwards. The background is dark and out of focus, with some bokeh light spots in the bottom right corner. Overlaid on the right side of the image is the text 'NIŹĚR' and 'ŁĚST'ĚTH' in a white, serif font.
